

CELEBRATION WINDS UP WITH RACING ON RIVER

Speaking One Big Feature of Day at Belle Vernon

TENER TENDERED OVATION

Greeted With Enthusiastic Cheers When He Arises to Make Address

With speaking by prominent men and vaudeville acts at Lynn's Grove, and a boat race on the river last evening, the celebration in honor of the freeing of the Belle Vernon bridge came to a close. The speaking was easily one of the chief features of the day, owing to the notable men who made addresses. The chief address of the afternoon was made by Hon. John K. Tener of Charleroi, Republican candidate for Governor, who was accorded a great ovation when he took the stand, after being introduced by E. L. Sears, president of the Civic League. Mr. Sears made the address of welcome.

Coroner James T. Heffran of Speers, who was one of the first to take up the matter of having the bridge freed, was the first speaker, and was followed by T. P. Jones, the attorney for the Fayette county petitioners. Alex M. Templeton the attorney of the Washington county petitioners made an address, and was followed by Congressman A. F. Cooper of Uniontown. Congressman Cooper said that by his work as a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee in the United States Congress, Hon. John K. Tener had much to do with the improvement of the Monongahela river.

Cries of "Tener, Tener, Tener," greeted President Sears when he arose again. Mr. Tener had to wait a few minutes after being introduced before he was able to make himself heard. He began his speech by telling of the intense rivalry of Charleroi and Belle Vernon on the baseball diamond when he used to pitch for Charleroi.

He said that the freeing of the bridge was an important event to all parties concerned and added: "I have always been in favor of public improvements, both bridges and roads. If at any time it is in my power to assist I will use my influence for the establishment of public improvements." He told of his work as a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee and said: "It was a happy moment for me when the government committee itself agreed to the improvement of the Monongahela. Dr. M. Campsey, the only one of the Washington county bridge viewers originally in favor of condemning the bridge, and Dr. J. S. VanVoorhis, the Belle Vernon historian, made addresses.

There was but one yacht race at night, won by Fred Lloyd of McKeesport in his 40-horse-power yacht, Hist. No. 2. The distance of six miles, five turns, was covered in 13 1-2.

Large crowds thronged the streets from early morning until late at night, and the days was made one of the biggest in Belle Vernon's history.

The social was a big success and the Young Ladies Altar Guild, which had the affair in charge, realized well on it.

NO LICENSE FOR BREWERY

Superior Court Hands Down Decision on Star Company Case

The Star Brewing Company at Washington is deprived of license by a decision of the Superior Court Wednesday at Philadelphia. The company was refused a license at the February license court by Judge J. A. McIlvaine and appealed the case. By the decision the decree of the lower court is affirmed and the appeal dismissed at the cost of the appellant. The charge against the brewery was a violation of the Brooks law by the employment of agents. It was also alleged that gambling and drinking were allowed around the premises. The Washington brewery and the Crescent brewery which applied for a renewal of their license at the same time, withdrew their applications after the preliminary hearing. The Star, however, continued its application and was refused at the final hearing. The appeal was made immediately.

The Washington and Crescent breweries have been granted State licenses.

UMBEL MUST BE MORE SPECIFIC EPISCOPALS BEAT LUTHERAN BUNCH

The decision of Law Judge J. Q. VanSwearingen of Fayette county dismissing the petition for a more complete accounting of the primary election expenses of President Judge Robert E. Umbel of Fayette county for the June, 1909, primaries is reversed in an opinion filed by Judge Rice Tuesday at Philadelphia in the Superior Court. The record is ordered re-committed for a further hearing and the costs placed on the appellants.

Judge Rice in his opinion dismisses the point raised by the appellants that a change of venue should have been granted because of Judge Umbel's position of president judge of Fayette county. The court held, however, that more specific information as to the disbursements made by the agents for the candidate should have been included in the account filed by Judge Umbel.

At the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, the Bureau of Soils has begun a soil investigation of Bedford, Bradford, Erie, and Washington counties, Pennsylvania embracing a territory of approximately 5,000 square miles. The work, which consists of soil surveys, will be pushed to a rapid completion and will be done in co-operation with the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. Messrs. Mann, Wood, Maynardier and Walsh will be in charge of the work for the department.

The reports of the investigation will be of great value and will consist of a detailed description of the soils of the counties, what they are best suited for, and how they should be used and prepared for agricultural purposes, also chemical analysis, showing what fertilizers should be used. Maps in colors will be attached to the reports, showing in detail the classification of the soils and all other important details, such as towns, school houses, churches, streams and roads. Fatality Results Indirectly from Celebration
GOES INTO CONVULSIONS

Accident Happens Early in Morning and Child Enjoys Parade Afterwards

One fatality resulted indirectly from the Belle Vernon free bridge celebration, when Katharine, the 4 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. Henry, died from injuries received from being struck by an automobile yesterday. The little girl died, following convulsions lasting several hours, at 6:30 this morning.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning James Patterson, a prominent Fayette City contractor who lives near Belle Vernon was coming in his Buick automobile form his home to participate in the automobile parade at Belle Vernon. On State street, Belle Vernon, he noticed a little girl playing and tooted his horn, then when she did not seem to pay any attention, slowed down and made a detour to prevent hitting her. Just as the machine approached she dodged directly in front and was struck.

At the time the little girl did not seem much injured, and although somewhat frightened, when taken home recovered her spirits to enjoy the parade near noon when it passed the Henry home. She was sitting on the front porch at that time. Shortly after noon she lapsed into unconsciousness, and later was seized with convulsions which lasted for about six hours. She then lapsed again into unconsciousness, and remained in that state until this morning when she died. Drs. N. T. Lohman and G. E. Nichols from Belle Vernon attended her.

HORSE BACKS BUGGY INTO TROLLEY CAR

When a horse being driven by G. H. Astlin, of Monessen backed into a Belle Vernon Chaleroi car at the corner of Tenth street and a Fallowfield avenue last night, the man's buggy was wrecked. The affair occurred at about 8:30 o'clock when the car was leaving Charleroi for Belle Vernon. With Astlin was J. J. Shock also of Monessen.

Will Hold Picnic

The Junior Christian Endeavor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church will hold an outing and picnic at Frye's farm tomorrow, weather permitting. In case of rain a social time will be enjoyed at the church. The children and all who anticipate going are requested to be at the church at 9:30 o'clock.

Autos and Free Silver

In an alleged movement in financial circles designed to check the purchase of automobiles by persons whom the banks think should either save their money or are not warranted in indulging in such a luxury, may be detected something akin to the free silver bugaboo which terrorized financial sharps in the nineties more than did the appearance of Halley's comet affect the superstitiously inclined this year. Free silver was declared a bugaboo, not because it would really do any harm in itself—as it probably would not if no one thought it would—but chiefly because it would take the control of money away from the banks and Wall street. The effects of a man taking his sterling silver spoons to the mint and having them converted into coin instead of "hocking" them at a discount when he became hard up, was so magnified by able financiers that people imagined that the sky would fall if the mints performed this bit of service free of charge to the people.

Thus it is with the auto. That the craze is an extravagance in many instances all will admit, but an organized effort to restrict and regulate their purchase by the people cannot originate from philanthropic motives. The real reason is said to come from Wall street, which is missing the savings of the provident in the purchasing and margining of stocks. The lambkin who has saved up a thousand or two instead of getting shorn is buying an automobile. This process duplicated in every community constitutes a mighty aggregation, and it is diverting millions of dollars that annually flowed directly into Wall street. The price of an ordinary machine will margin a small block of stocks, which, with an aggregate of them, is highly profitable to the manipulator. Hence the squeal.

In this respect the auto may serve a useful purpose in economics by teaching the people that their finances do not need to be controlled by any individual or set of individuals. It was this sentiment that kept the postal savings banks out of existence for so many years, and has perpetuated a system of banking that was designed only to meet emergencies in time of war.

The cheapest way to get to Belle Vernon now of course is to walk.

His Fine Italian Hand

Advice from the county seat are that the Acheson-Flinn-VanValkenburg following are to hold a meeting at the court house next Monday to organize and select delegates to the "rump" convention to be held in Philadelphia next Thursday. The object of this convention as previously stated is to nominate a ticket in opposition to the Republican and Democratic State tickets.

It is needless to remark that the county organization will be dominated and dictated by E. F. Acheson. The latter is the wheel horse in the disgruntled movement in this end of the State outside of the Flinn following in Pittsburg, and he is therefore chief organizer, walking delegate and the whole thing. He will probably have himself named as delegate to Philadelphia, and his fine Italian hand is apparent in the "wide-spread independent movement" that the Washington Observer asserts is sweeping over the county. Mr. Acheson himself is the movement, and he is spreading himself as widely as possible, which is not very extensive, after all.

The Land Show

Under the auspices of the Pittsburg Gazette Times and Chronicle Telegraph a land show is to be held in that city in the Duquesne Garden next October. The object of the exhibition is to show the people of this section what may be done with land other than plotting it into building lots and town sites and boomin real estate values.

Besides this occupation land can be devoted to producing things to eat, thereby decreasing the cost of living. On land may be raised white beans, onions, potatoes and other things for which people pay grocers and commission men high prices. Incidentally land will produce grass and grazing, which might cheapen the price of butter and milk. With a freer use of the land the Philo box and searvy chicken industry might be put on the bum. The land show is a brilliant thought, and if our esteemed contemporaries can educate the people of the Pittsburg district to realize that land can be used for other purposes than the creation of real estate values, they will have performed a great work.

The Alert Man.

"Calmness is a fine trait," said Mr. Bibly, "but does it always get there? You take the case of two men standing up in a car holding on to straps, both the same age, but one of them quiet and the other quick, and now let the man they are standing in front of get up to leave the car at a station, and suppose these two men are both at exactly the same distance from the seat, each with the same chance as the other for seizing it, which would get that seat? Would it be the calm, cool man who moved deliberately and always with some thought for others, or would it be the ever alert man, quick to move and always on the lookout, not caring a continental for what anybody thinks and always ready to jump in any seat he can nab? Why, while the calm man is thinking it over about what he shall do and beginning to turn that way the alert man is in the seat. I certainly do admire the calm, tranquil man and his good manners, but it is the man ever on the alert that gets the seat in the car—and other things."—New York Sun.

New Tuberculosis Cure Based on Medicine

Did it ever occur to you that the reason medical doctors have no more success in curing tuberculosis is because they really do not practice medicine? To say that a specific exists for the cure of consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of uselessness and in permanently curing a large number of consumptives.

Telling every sufferer to gorge himself with eggs and milk is apparently the limit of modern treatment. Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities of one or two are given, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient?—Eckman's Alternative has cured and is curing many a case of consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is a specimen:—
Savannah, Ga., Rochester, N. Y.
Gentlemen: On Jan. 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After this operation my physicians gave me up. I was then urged by a clergyman to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs., and am absolutely cured.
(Signed Affidavit) EDNA FINZER.
Eckman's Alternative is good for all throat and lung troubles, and is on sale in Charleroi by W. F. Hennings and other druggists. It can also be obtained at or procured by your local druggist. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write or evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Phila., Pa.

CELEBRATION WINDS UP WITH RACING ON RIVER

Speaking One Big Feature of Day at Belle Vernon

TENER TENDERED OVATION

Greeted With Enthusiastic Cheers When He Arises to Make Address

With speaking by prominent men and vaudeville acts at Lynn's Grove, and a boat race on the river last evening, the celebration in honor of the freeing of the Belle Vernon bridge came to a close. The speaking was easily one of the chief features of the day, owing to the notable men who made addresses. The chief address of the afternoon was made by Hon. John K. Tener of Charleroi, Republican candidate for Governor, who was accorded a great ovation when he took the stand, after being introduced by E. L. Sears, president of the Civic League. Mr. Sears made the address of welcome.

Coroner James T. Heffran of Speers, who was one of the first to take up the matter of having the bridge freed, was the first speaker, and was followed by T. P. Jones, the attorney for the Fayette county petitioners. Alex M. Templeton the attorney of the Washington county petitioners made an address, and was followed by Congressman A. F. Cooper of Uniontown. Congressman Cooper said that by his work as a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee in the United States Congress, Hon. John K. Tener had much to do with the improvement of the Monongahela river.

Cries of "Tener, Tener, Tener," greeted President Sears when he arose again. Mr. Tener had to wait a few minutes after being introduced before he was able to make himself heard. He began his speech by telling of the intense rivalry of Charleroi and Belle Vernon on the baseball diamond when he used to pitch for Charleroi.

He said that the freeing of the bridge was an important event to all parties concerned and added: "I have always been in favor of public improvements, both bridges and roads. If at any time it is in my power to assist I will use my influence for the establishment of public improvements." He told of his work as a member of the Rivers and Harbors committee and said: "It was a happy moment for me when the government committee itself agreed to the improvement of the Monongahela. D. M. Campsey, the only one of the Washington county bridge viewers originally in favor of condemning the bridge, and Dr. J. S. VanVoorhis, the Belle Vernon historian, made addresses.

There was but one yacht race at night, won by Fred Lloyd of McKeesport in his 40-horse-power yacht, Hist. No. 2. The distance of six miles, five turns, was covered in 31-2.

Large crowds thronged the streets from early morning until late at night, and the days was made one of the biggest in Belle Vernon's history.

NO LICENSE FOR BREWERY

Superior Court Hands Down Decision on Star Company Case

The Star Brewing Company at Washington is deprived of license by a decision of the Superior Court Wednesday at Philadelphia. The company was refused a license at the February license court by Judge J. A. McIlvaine and appealed the case. By the decision the decree of the lower court is affirmed and the appeal dismissed at the cost of the appellant.

The charge against the brewery was a violation of the Brooks law by the employment of agents. It was also alleged that gambling and drinking were allowed around the premises. The Washington brewery and the Crescent brewery which applied for a renewal of their license at the same time, withdrew their applications after the preliminary hearing. The Star, however, continued its application and was refused at the final hearing. The appeal was made immediately.

The Washington and Crescent breweries have been granted State licenses.

UMBEL MUST BE MORE SPECIFIC EPISCOPALS BEAT LUTHERAN BUNCH

The decision of Law Judge J. Q. VanSwearingen of Fayette county dismissing the petition for a more complete accounting of the primary election expenses of President Judge Robert E. Umbel of Fayette county for the June, 1909, primaries is reversed in an opinion filed by Judge Rice Tuesday at Philadelphia in the Superior Court. The record is ordered re-committed for a further hearing and the costs placed on the appellants.

Judge Rice in his opinion dismisses the point raised by the appellants that a change of venue should have been granted because of Judge Umbel's position of president judge of Fayette county. The court held, however, that more specific information as to the disbursements made by the agents for the candidate should have been included in the account filed by Judge Umbel.

Fatality Results Indirectly from Celebration

GOES INTO CONVULSIONS

Accident Happens Early in Morning and Child Enjoys Parade Afterwards

One fatality resulted indirectly from the Belle Vernon free bridge celebration, when Katharine, the 4 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. Henry, died from injuries received from being struck by an automobile yesterday. The little girl died, following convulsions lasting several hours, at 6:30 this morning.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning James Patterson, a prominent Fayette City contractor who lives near Belle Vernon was coming in his Buick automobile from his home to participate in the automobile parade at Belle Vernon. On State street, Belle Vernon, he noticed a little girl playing and tooted his horn, then when she did not seem to pay any attention, slowed down and made a detour to prevent hitting her. Just as the machine approached she dodged directly in front and was struck.

At the time the little girl did not seem much injured, and although somewhat frightened, when taken home recovered her spirits to enjoy the parade near noon when it passed the Henry home. She was sitting on the front porch at that time. Shortly after noon she lapsed into unconsciousness, and later was seized with convulsions which lasted for about six hours. She then lapsed again into unconsciousness, and remained in that state until this morning when she died. Drs. N. T. Lobman and G. E. Nichols from Belle Vernon, attended her.

HORSE BACKS BUGGY INTO TROLLEY CAR

When a horse being driven by G. H. Astlin, of Monessen backed into a Belle Vernon Charleroi car at the corner of Tenth street and a falloway avenue last night, the man's buggy was wrecked. The affair occurred at about 8:30 o'clock when the car was leaving Charleroi for Belle Vernon. With Astlin was J. J. Shock also of Monessen.

The Junior Christian Endeavor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church will hold an outing and picnic at Frye's farm tomorrow, weather permitting. In case of rain a social time will be enjoyed at the church. The children and all who anticipate going are requested to be at the church at 9:30 o'clock.

New Tuberculosis Cure Based on Medicine

Did it ever occur to you that the reason medical doctors have so little success in curing Tuberculosis is because they really do not practice medicine?
To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but an alternative medicine has been found that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness and in permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.
Telling every sufferer to gorge himself with eggs and milk is apparently the limit of modern treatment. Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be fed with whole-some, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.
Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient? Eckman's Alternative has cured and is curing many a case of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is a specimen:
90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.
Gentlemen: On Jan. 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up. I was then urged by a clergyman to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs., and am absolutely cured.
(Signed Affidavit) EDNA FINZER.
Eckman's Alternative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles, and is on sale in Charleroi by W. F. Hennings and other druggists. It can also be obtained at, or procured by, your local druggist. Ask for booklet of Cured Cases or write or evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Chicago, Pa.

"PITCHING INTO POLITICS"

The Story of John K. Tener

The Republican Candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania
IN

The SATURDAY EVENING POST

Dated July 23d

EVERY man in this section should read this sketch of Congressman Tener, the ex-National League-baseball pitcher, and how he was nominated as the Republican candidate for governor.

Of Mr. Tener personally the "Who's Who and Why" man says:

"He is a quiet, industrious man, popular with his colleagues, and always votes with the Organization. For a new man he has done a lot for his district."

Congressman Tener is one of the best known men in Pennsylvania. A few years ago he was elected Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, and while he has not played professional baseball for a number of years, he is known to many baseball fans in the Keystone State.

"Congressman Tener is the first pitcher ever put at the top of the batting list."

Show this ad. to every man in town. Tell them that they want to get this issue of THE POST and read the story of Congressman Tener.
